Getting Ready

- Find your assigned advisor @ advising.wisc.edu
- Determine how to schedule an appointment
- Schedule an appointment a few weeks early
- Create a reminder (phone/calendar/post-it note)

Research

- Check if you have Holds or To-dos in Student Center
- Learn more @ advising.wisc.edu/content/enrollment
- Reflect on your interests, write down your questions
- Check on your registration deadlines

Items to bring

- Student ID
- Pen/Pencil & Paper (Tip: Keep an “Advising Folder”)
- List of questions, concerns, and interests
- Current DARS Report in Student Center & transcript
  *In some cases your advisor may already have this printed

Appointment Time

- Please call if you need to cancel or reschedule
- Arrive 5-10 minutes early
- TURN OFF your cell phone and listen carefully
- Ask questions, and take notes

Follow-up

- Get a business card or contact info (if needed)
- Follow-up on referrals, research, decisions, etc.
- Mark your calendar for your next appointment
- Find more Undergraduate Advising Resources @ advising.wisc.edu